

MACON-BIBB COUNTY INDUSTRIAL AUTHORITY

FOOD PROCESSING

With its location near Interstates I-75, I-16, and I-475, Macon is a great location to serve Atlanta and Southeast markets.

First-rate transportation infrastructure

The largest rail switching center on the East coast

Available and reliable workforce

Just over an hour's drive to Atlanta's Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport

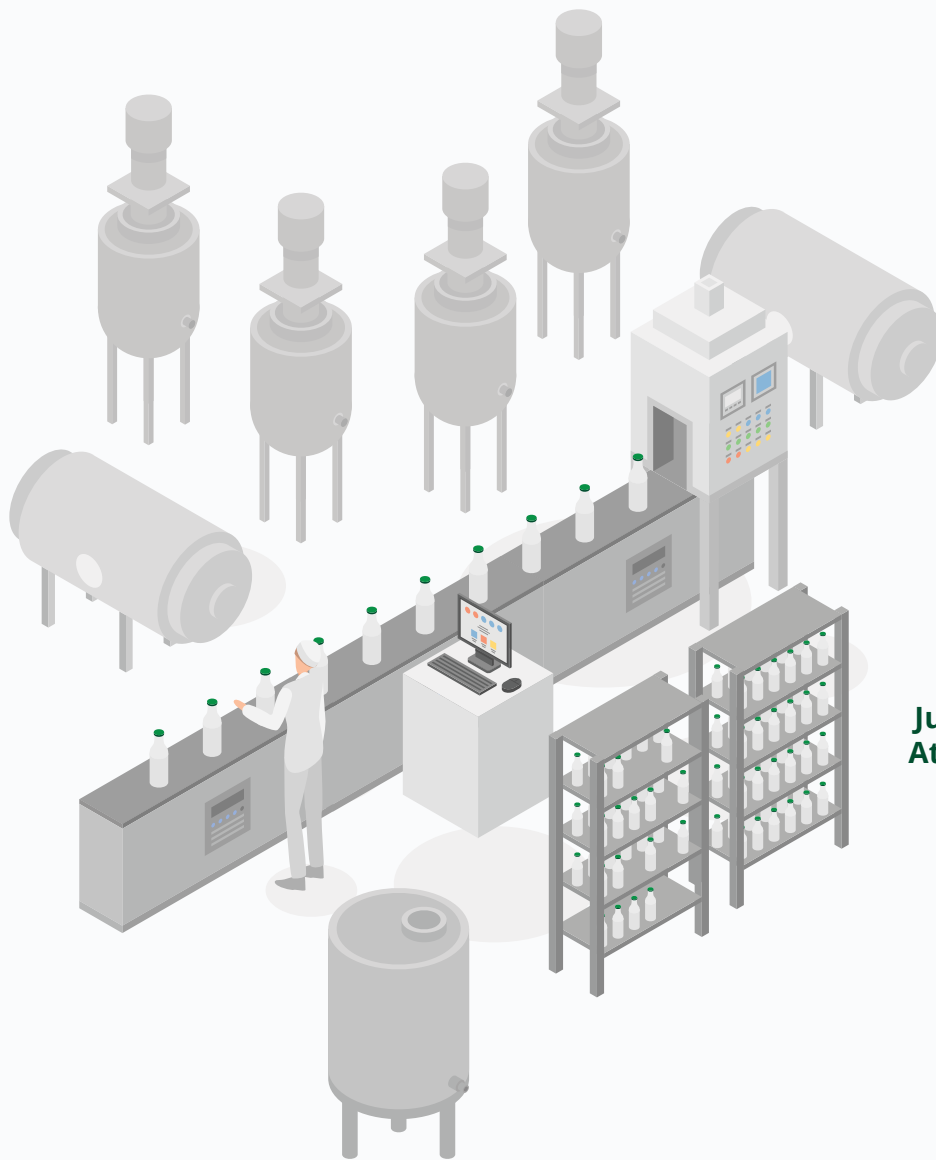

Georgia's nationally recognized Quick Start training program

26 County draw area of over 400,000 people

8 area colleges, universities and technical colleges - over 50,000 students

Macon offers abundant, high quality water and sewer capacity and award-winning treatment plants. In fact, our reservoir has a water capacity of 60,000,000 gallons/day and sewer capacity of 48,000,000 gallons/day.

The American Water Works Association selected the Macon Water Authority as the 2009 "Best of the Best" taste test winner meaning that Macon also offers America's best tasting water.

Intermodal network of Norfolk Southern and Georgia Central Rail